

Three stories in my life!

Who I am? Someone would say you are Robert.

Someone would say you are a kind boy or a helpful boy.

So now I'm going to tell you some stories about me.

I was born in August, 2008. I was born in Beijing.

Last day, my mom told me that day is the happiest day in her life. I think so. In my imagination, the sky was whole blue and the sun shone. And now, 12 years past, I grew up and become a mature student.

When I am in the kindergarten, I start to play the violin. I really enjoy it. My first violin is very small, I even cannot play it anymore. My first teacher, Mr. Hu, is not good at teaching and playing the violin, but he let me like the violin. And now, 12 years past, I can play the violin well, but my violin teacher is not Mr. Hu, but Mr. Bai.

As you know, I like study very much. The most exciting thing is to go to the primary school. In my opinion, it is the greatest time. My school is not big, but is fun and beautiful. Teachers are helpful and kind, my classmates are funny. There is a garden in the school. I really like to go there.

Commented [RE1]: Instead pf using some one, use "some"

Others would say I am a kind boy or helpful boy.
